Dear Church Family, Our family is so thankful for your care in response to our grandmother's death on April 25th. Willa Dean Houser, better known as Dean or "Ganny", was in our family for eight of her 96 years and you were always kind and loving when she attended services here. Kurt and Shelton could always get a laugh out of her! She even spent a week with several of us at Lake Junaluska's family camp and became special friends with Mrs. Edouard there. Your many cards, calls, texts and meals met our need in a difficult time and we're forever grateful. The majority of Ganny's life was spent in Chattanooga, TN and her memorial will be held there on July 31st. She will be interred with my grandfather, Melvin D. Houser, at Hamilton Memorial Gardens. We're looking forward to a great reunion with them when Jesus comes again very soon. With sincere thanks, The Kelley Family
